Are We Ready to Confront the World?

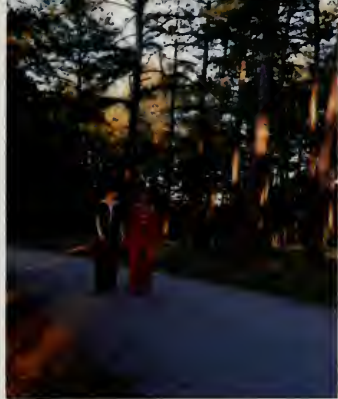

... this should be the challenging question in our lives as we sit in each class, study each book, write each paper, and diligently prepare our minds for the task that is before us, so that we might be able to point many to the truth of the Scriptures who will in turn, faithfully teach others.

Have We Encouraged One Another In the Path of Prayer?

Great men and women of old were able to confront the world because of their powerful prayer lives and strong communion with the Lord. In the same way, our lives should be characterized by a steady increase in prayer, along with our study of the Word. Those who fail in this are described as withered branches cut off from the nourishment of the Vine. Are we encouraging the prayer lives of our brothers and sisters to reflect concern for a spiritually and physically oppressed world?

Does Our Love Show Him to the World?

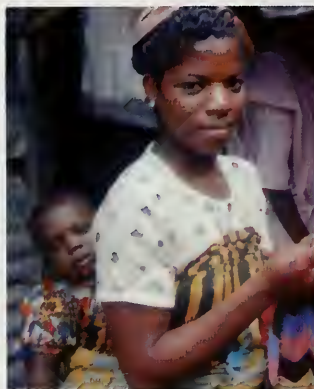

The fellowship of believers, the unity of Christian hearts, the encouragement given by our brothers and sisters are all part of the plan of preparation. Without these vital elements, our ministry would be sterile and ineffective. The constant contact with other believers provides an outlet for Christian love and servanthood, preparing us now for future ministry to the needy world.

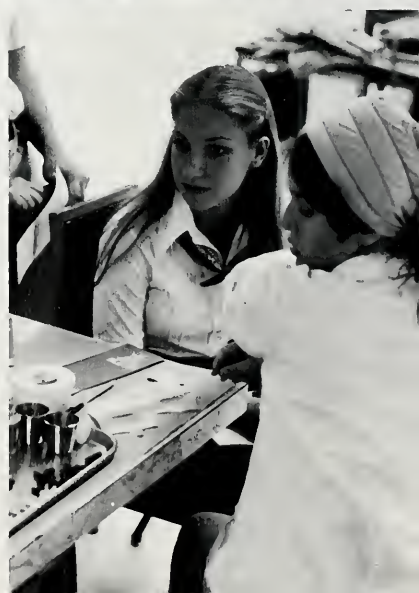

Do We Live and Work and Have Our Being in Him?

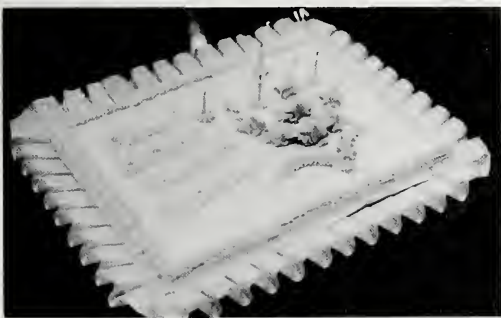

We must recognize the totality of the believer's life. Preparing ourselves to confront the world is not limited to our studies and prayer lives. Jesus even controls our physical and social activities. We are being made ready as we learn to yield every area of life to Him.

Therefore, Be Ready
in Every Aspect of Life.

Thank You, Lord, for Mr. Scott

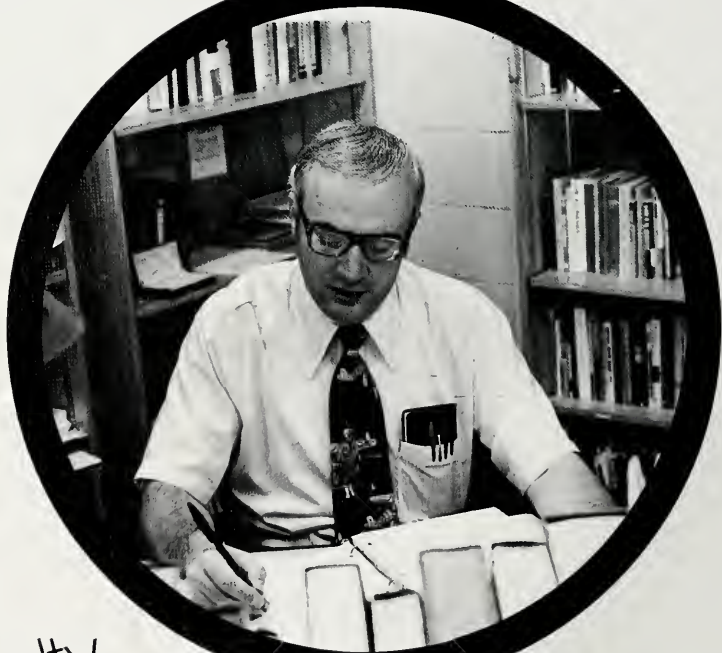

In a world of skeptics
Who trample underfoot God's Word of Truth
In a generation of error
Who choose the wide, well-favoured path
In a society of shallow men
Who ridicule our fathers' lasting faith
How can we confront the disbelief?
YE SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH . . .
The Truth of God's creation
The Truth of the narrow way
The Truth of an established faith
AND THE TRUTH SHALL SET YOU FREE!
Thank you, Lord Jesus,
For helping us to see your order and design
For exposing error and guiding us to truth
For tracing out the richness of our heritage
Through Your servant, RAYMOND SCOTT.

"There will be no pop quizzes in this class; but when we study Egypt, there will be mummy quizzes." Anyone who has taken a course in Science, Church History, or Cults, knows this to be one of the famous puns of Mr. Scott. Because of his background as a laboratory scientist, and then several years as a pastor, Mr. Scott thoroughly prepares students to recognize the errors and the truth of Science and History as they relate to the Scriptures. Those who know him describe him as warm, encouraging, humble, and disciplined, demonstrating a sincere love for students. But most of all, he is known as a man who loves God and His Ways. The 1978 Finial is dedicated to Mr. Raymond L. Scott, who has committed himself to making students ready to confront the world.

Confront the World...in Truth

Every scripture inspired of God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction, which is in righteousness: that the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work.

 All striving for one purpose,
 Teaching us the Word of God, The Truth
 Directed by God, led by Him
 Fulfilling the needs of the students

 A oneness of fellowship,
 They care because Christ cared,
 They teach because Christ taught

Confront the World...in Faith

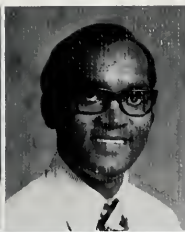

For whatsoever is begotten of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith.

I John 5:4

Columbia Graduate School of Bible and Missions

Grads . . . so different and yet so alike
Differing programs of study
In search for the one Absolute of God's truth
The excitement of youth, the wisdom of age
Led by one Spirit,
Nationals and internationals
With one citizenship in Christ,
A variety of experiences
Forming one lifestyle in the Master's program
Pastors, nurses, teachers
Missionaries, veterans and businessmen,
Confronting the world in the unity of one Faith.

Sophomores '77-'78 . . .

Slowly, our fears are being expelled
 By God's love,
 Preparing ourselves for our future ministries
 By growing in love with each other Through skit night, class chapels, socials study breaks and study sessions,
 By expressing our love for our community
 Through special work days,
 School-wide activities, olympics,
 By learning to love a world in need
 Through F.M.F., class prayer meetings,
 Recognizing the needs of other lands,
 God's perfect love in us —
 The fulfillment of the Law.

No Fears in God's Perfect Love

(Chorus)
There is no fear in love
But perfect love casts out all fear
We have this confidence in Him
Who manifests His love in us.

So let not your heart be troubled
Neither be afraid,
To love the ones He has given you,
Without any fear
(Chorus)

Love the world in boldness Believe His
pow'r in you
That by this love of God
They might live through
Him
(Chorus)

Reasons Why

The excitement of team competition,
 An opportunity for fitness,
 Just for fun,
 A chance to display Christian character on the field
 Sharing after the game,
 A chance to excel,
 Discipline,
 To glorify God in another area of life.

Jonathan Olford coached the Cougars to one of the best seasons CBC has ever had.

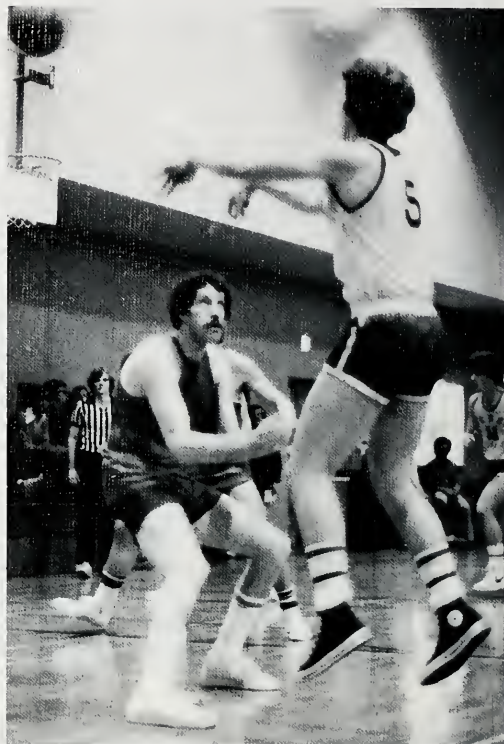

Cougars Claw Out A Winning Season

Flashing blue and gold jerseys,
The sharp pain of catching one's breath,
The dull thud of foot meeting ball,
A word of prayer before the game,
Lonely night road work,
The crowd's roar of approval,
The referee's shrill whistle,
A satisfying well-executed play,
Desperately working out a cramp,
Eating with an opposing team,
Another victory and a word of thanks,
CBC soccer at its best.

Cougars Basketball '78

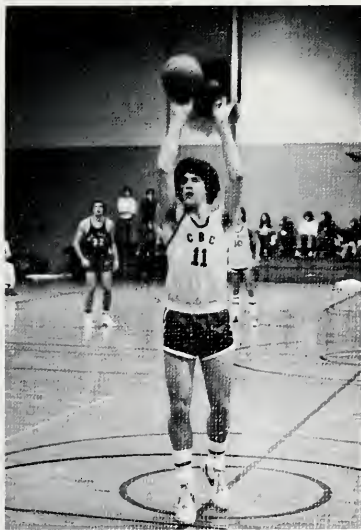

Building up for the approaching season,
 Fifteen panting miles a week,
 Practicing hard
 For that season opener,
 The moment of trial.
 Consecrating the game through prayer,
 Energy exploding at the jump ball,
 Testimonies tried by flying elbows,
 Pressure builds
 As the score mounts —
 The buzzer signals,
 The end of a game well-fought.

Pack-out crowds at the YMCA, Release of tensions and Pressures of school,
Two little nerd-men
Decked in purple and army boots,
Hoarse throats and sore lungs,
Free dates and Friday night fun.

CBC Tennis

Signing up for the court,
 Psyching out your opponent
 With flashy clothes,
 Breaking in new balls
 On a wet day,
 The satisfaction
 Of a well-executed back-hand return,
 Missing a simple lob,
 Burning in that first serve,
 Clearing the net —
 Clearing the court —
 Clearing the fence.
 Buying three new balls
 For the next game.

Intramural Basketball

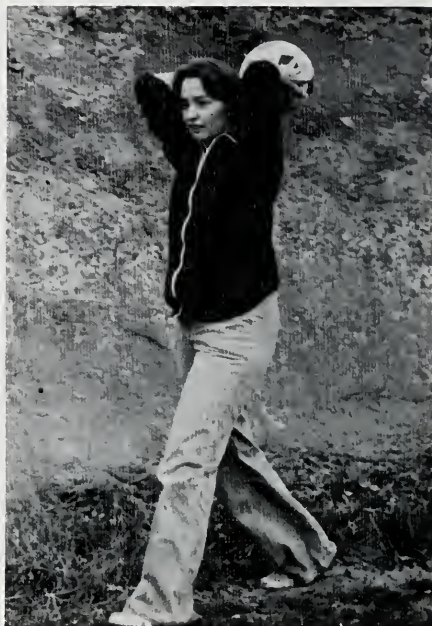

New innovations in intramurals,
Class competition,
Freezing cold weather
And numb fingers,
A fast break and successful lay-up,
Learning to control tempers,
Working as a team,
Playing to win
And learning to lose.

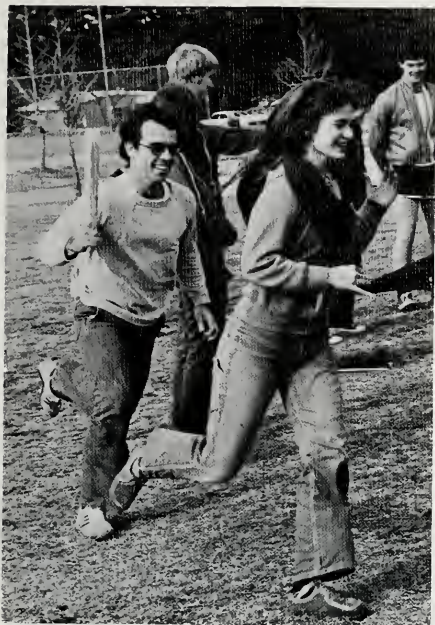

Girls' Intramural Soccer

Learning to work as a team,
Striving to win,
Enjoying the exercise,
Laughing for fun,
Tripping over the ball,
A great way
To earn PE points,
Unity among the girls,
Learning to honor the Lord
In sports.

P.E. Class

The old . . .
 Playing soccer,
 Tennis, volleyball,
 All the favorites,
 And the new . . .
 Games for all ages,
 Learning how to teach
 And minister
 Through recreation.

Confront the World...in Love

By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love to another.

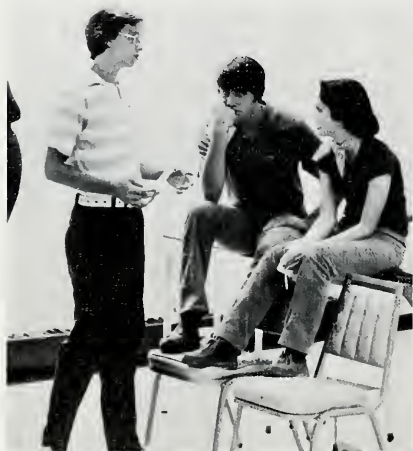

John 13:35

All School Picnic

Blood Drive

Life . . .
 Flowing from us into a needy world,
 Involvement in a cause that always sees results,
 New life gained because someone has given,
 A way to show the world His great love.

Halloween

Excitement in the air,
The fun of losing your inhibitions
Dressing up in the craziest outfits,
Clowns and a chicken,
Farmers and freaks,
A spider here and there,
Games and songs,
A unique Halloween night!

Dorm Life

Perhaps the crucial test of love:
Living cramped in a room with
One as imperfect as yourself,
Being patient with those who rise
At 6:45 on Saturdays,
Seeing the same people every day
Yet viewing them as unique, worthwhile, and precious
In the eyes of Jesus.

And as we begin to love,
The dorm becomes a place of Fun and laughter,
Hall parties and sing-outs,
Pizza feasts and pillow fights,
Prayer times and struggles shared,
Special times with special people,
Love being perfected, stretched, and made alive.

Skit Night

1st Place: Seniors "King Arthur"
 2nd Place: Sophomores "Rollerella"
 3rd Place: Freshmen "Once Upon a Dream"
 4th Place: Grads "Back Home on the Farm"
 Last, but certainly not least,
 Juniors "The Stolen Hymnbooks"

Hard work as a class,
 An original skit,
 Hours of practice,
 Lines to be memorized,
 Commercials that show
 Faculty talent,
 Costumes, laughter,
 All make up Skit Night.

Homecoming

The mingling of the old and the new,
 The past and the present,
 A time to reflect on God's faithfulness
 In ages past
 Familiar faces, happy reunions,
 A film presentation tracing our roots,
 Pop Supplee leading old familiar hymns,
 Challenges from Elwyn Davies,
 The alumni banquet
 . . . this was Homecoming '77.

Our Favorite Pastime . . .

Eating . . . the necessary daily ritual,
To endure for one more time,
The long lines, those scrambled eggs,
The mishaps and spills,
The cafeteria: a place for theological discussions,
Silly, fun laughter,
Romantic encounters around 5:30-7:00.

Mealtimes . . . a time to relax,
 Enjoying friends not seen throughout the week,
 Mixing business meetings with pleasure,
 Making that final momentous decision:
 Do I want ice cream or an orange?

Growing churches, supplied funds
Children's Haven being built,
Answered prayers,
Commitments to Jesus Christ.

Greenhouse

I'm in a greenhouse now, Lord
Here it's warm and sunny
Gentle hands tenderly feed and water me
And I can feel myself growing — quickly!

Out there
Out from under this dome of protection,
The blazing rays of the sun try to scorch
And pollution hazes the air
And weeds clog the rock-strewn soil.

It's easy to forget in the greenhouse
What the forest is like.

Help me appreciate this greenhouse, Lord
Help my roots grow deep and firm
So that when I'm transplanted
Back in the threatening forest,
From whence I came,
Instead of withering and dying,
I'll reproduce.

Confronting the world
seeing eye to eye
a massive wall of faces expressions of potential, living expressions of needs, longing individuals without Christ, lost, confidently we step out, knowing
Jesus is the Way
Dare we become involved
day after day, after day, after . . .
we've been shown.

Confronting the world
peering into darkened corners of hurting hearts, empty and broken lives, shattered, no morning has come, yesterday, nor today carrying a torch of light to dispel shadows of doubt unhesitatingly we enter open doors of opportunity, knowing Jesus is the truth
Dare we become involved
day after day, after day, after . . .
we've been shown.

Confronting the world
staring at the confusion of mixed up morals, destroying and distraught circles of despair, unending, traveled by passive occupants who live behind doors which read "do not disturb!"
lying, hidden, waiting, wondering, wanting to die, hurriedly we run to the scene and knock, knowing Jesus is the life
Dare we become involved
day after day, after day after . . .
we've been shown:

Only in Truth, in faith, in strength, in unity, and in love can we dare to confront the world As did those faithful ones by whom we've been shown that Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.
